DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This is a 19th Century church, important only for its historical connections with the community. It has lost most of its architectural significance thru alterations. The present appearance is of a low, four-bay structure with a smaller, scaled entrance vestibule, and an open entrance hood of cinderblock. The entire building has been covered with a color-patterned, cement-stone veneer. There is a small bell-tower on the main block over the entrance (north facade.)
